Dear Mr. McMahon:

Although I am not a White House Fellow, I particularly enjoyed hearing you speak on Friday.

Having just joined the F.B.I. as Special Assistant to Roger Young, Assistant Director in charge of Congressional and Public Affairs, I am trying to learn as much as possible.

Your remarks on terrorism and narcotics I found especially informative and important to an audience just as the White House Fellows.

Again, it was a pleasure to hear you and my personal congratulations on your new position.

Sincerely,

Lorrie A. Secrest
Special Assistant
Congressional & Public Affairs
Federal Bureau of Investigation
